Term 4 – Week 1

A reminder that parents are always welcome in the school whether to assist with school programs or to speak with teachers. If you would like to know how to best assist your child’s education just contact the teacher of your choice or the school office on 63741622.

Principal’s Message

Congratulations
To: all the Year 5 students who nominated for prefect for next year. The speeches were outstanding. Any of the candidates would be worthy prefects and captains.

To: Lily Haney in Year 1 who took the photo for the new header on our newsletter.

To: Isabelle Davies and Madeline Jackson whose photos were chosen for the Gulgong Post Office “message in a bottle” promotion.

Thank You
To: those parents who have returned their School Culture Survey. There are still more than 50% out there – please return them ASAP.

Consultation Survey
In order to assist our planning for the next three years I need parent and community ideas. Last week I attached to the newsletter a one-page “Consultation Survey” which will give me some feedback about our school’s operation. Your opinions and ideas are valued. Please take the time to respond ASAP.

Prefect’s Elections
Congratulations to the 26 students who gave their speeches on Friday. All those students deserve accolade for a job well done in very nerve-wracking circumstances. As always I am thoroughly impressed with how mature the students were in their speeches. Well done.

All of the students who stood for election would be very worthy prefects in 2015 and all will still have a leadership role to play as mentors for younger students.

The prefects elected in alphabetical order are:
Samantha Barnes, Samuel Camelleri, James Cheesewright, Isabelle Davies, Olivia Holt, Summer McPhail, Matthew Papworth, Tayla Pennell, Emily Riley, Logan Scrivener

The two captains will be announced on Presentation Day when all the prefects will be given their badges of office.

How Do You Practice It?

You practice loyalty by committing to a person, or a belief. Choose your friends carefully, so you can be friends for a long time.

If someone tries to use your loyalty for a bad purpose, or hurts you over and over, you need to decide if it feels right to go on being loyal. Stand up for your family and friends when others act unjustly. When you are loyal you are worthy of trust.

Affirmation

“I am loyal to the people and ideas I care about. I am a friend through good times and bad. I am loyal to what I know is right. I do not allow friendship to lead me into trouble.”

Library News

Book Club due this Wednesday 19/11/14 – orders will not be taken after this Wednesday.

This is the final week for borrowing books from the library.

THIS WEEK’S VIRTUE:

LOYALTY

What is Loyalty?

Loyalty is staying true to someone. It is standing up for something you believe in without wavering. It is being faithful to your family, country, school, friends or ideals - when the going gets tough as well as when things are good. When you are a loyal friend, even if someone disappoints you, you still hand in there with them. Loyalty is staying committed.

Why Practice It?

You cannot count on disloyal people to stay friends, because when problems happen, they go away. They often change their minds about what they believe to be important. When you practice loyalty, people know they can count on you. People who are worthy of your loyalty can trust that they will never stand alone. With loyalty, you build friendships that last forever.
